It's been a busy year for road runners in St. Croix, lots of miles logged, calories burned, memories made. The running of the 32nd Cane Bay 5Mile Road Race on Saturday morning saw a group of over two dozen runners come out to the picturesque Cane Bay Road to do the event now also called the Jingle Bell Run. It's the last race of the year on the V.I.Pace Runners calendar. Some did it to loosen up after competing in last week's St. Croix International Marathon and V.I. Half-Marathon which used the same course; some just did it for fun and to capture the Christmas spirit. With a cruise ship headed for Frederiksted, Hamms Bluff, Davis Bay as the backdrop which also were the sets for two famous movies (The Island of Dr. Moreau and Trading Places) the runners close out the year in an appreciative and festive mood.

Juan Robles, winner of the V.I. Half-Marathon Championship last week and track coach at St. Croix Central High School, brought along Phillip Francis, one of his student/athletes to do the race and they cruised through it and finished first and second with Robles clocking 33:44 and Phillips running 33:47; Mike Klein, V.I. Ultra Champion and his wife Bridget, winner of the V.I. Marathon Championship title last week and celebrating the first anniversary finished in a tie for third overall in the race with a time of 35:11; Nikolas Franks was the fourth place male in 35:17 and Troy Holloway right on his heels, was fifth in 35:20.

Bridget Klein led the females across the line as she prepares for her first St. Croix Scenic 50 Miler coming up next month; Jen Sturm just finished the Honolulu Marathon last week and finished second in 41:27; Laura Kaogh was third in 45:26; Regina Stevens fourth in 45:49 and Amanda Cohen was fifth in 46:11.
