*Good Hope Country Day School Runners Make Statement at 35th Memorial Day

The annual Memorial Day 2Mile road race is a fast point-to-point mostly downhill race with its 35 year history of remembering those in the military who have made the ultimate sacrifice for their country.

This year's edition of the event was dominated by the runners from St. Croix's Good Hope Country Day School in part because the public schools were in session as a result of the hurricane impact on the school schedule.

The field of runners were led to the finish line at the Bypass Overlook by triathlete and GHCD student/athlete Dominic Pugliese with a time of 10:59; Michael Dizon-Bauman GHCD made up a lot of distance in the second mile to take second in 11:49; Makari Mathew GHCD was third in 12:00; Mason Lambert GHCD was fourth in 12:10; and Kaeden Gleason GHCD was fifth in 12:23

Megan Lambert, Mason's mom was the first place female in 13:26; Rachel Conhoff GHCD was second in 13:36; Josiphine Calhoun GHCD was third in 16:20; Shannon Calhoun GHCD was fourth in 17:28; Patty Patton was fifth in 18:08.

Military service was represented by: Randle Nielsen U.S. Army Veteran who finished sixth in 12:28; Michael Facchek Army National Guard 17:49; James Whitehurst U.S. Air Force Veteran 19:28; Mervin Mills V.I. National Guard 22:13 and Wallace Williams Race Director U.S. Air Force Veteran.

The next event on the V.I. Pace Runners calendar is the 34th Annual Women Race Sunday June 3, 5pm Christiansted.
