Runners in the NLW...Run To Your Library...head for The Florence Williams Public Library in St. Croix...V.I.Pace Runners photo

The Florence Williams Public Library is one of seven public library facilities in the Virgin Islands. For some forty years it has provided reader services to readers young and old. For thirty-three of those years, with the exception of one, the National Library Week...Run To Your Library has finished at its doorsteps (one year it was run around the grounds of the Sunshine Mall in Frederiksted).

Two dozen runners registered in the dark on Saturday morning (island-wide power outage) for the four lap race around the historic town of Christiansted. Juan Robles led the way through the 3.1 miles with a time of 16:45; multiple race winner Billy Bohlke took second place in 18:15; Randall Nielsen went under 20 minutes for the first time at the distance and finished third in 19:56; Jason Snow was fourth in 20:03 and David Ginn was the fifth place male in 20:41.

Bridget Klein defended her title as the first female and fifth place overall finisher in 20:21; Theresa Harper was second in 22:02; Rachael Connoff was third in 22:27; Jen Sturm was fourth in 23:14 and Dulcie Crowther was fifth in 25:20.

NOTES:

1] Overall winners received medals, a V.I.Pace Runners t-shirt, a St. Croix International Marathon medal (converted to key faub) race certificate, bookmarks and book bags.

2] The two youngest participants in the event Natalia Kueders 12 and Brice Richards 10 received Scholastic titles on First African American Female Pilot Bessie Coleman and Olympic hero Jesse Owens respectively.

3] The National Library Week...Run To Your Library 5K was founded by Wallace Williams, Olympic Marathon Runners 1988 Seoul Olympic Games and former Territorial Librarian for the Libraries, Archives and Museums for the Virgin Islands and race director for the event.

Upcoming runs on the V.I.Pace Runners calendar: April 30 The Paradise 5K 6pm Buccaneer Resort, May 1 The Children Run Christiansted 6pm Sunday Market Square (kick off Jump Up); The Memorial Day 2 Mile 6am May 25 Beeston Hill.
