VITFF BULLETIN: June 9, 2019 Results...The Carl Plaskett Virgin Islands Track and Field Championships...

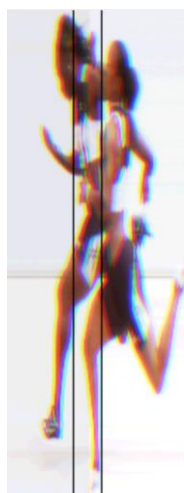

The Virgin Islands Track and Field Federation hosted the Carl Plaskett Virgin Islands Track and Field Championships on Saturday at the Ivanna Eudora Kean High School Track in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands USA.

The goal of the event is to provide athletes, male and female of all ages, the opportunity to participate in track and field, to help determine who are the top performers and aid in selection of V.I. national teams for upcoming international championships including: Pan Am Games, World Championships, Pan Am Games, Pan Am u20, nacac u18-u20, NACAC youth age-group championships.

Invited were male and female athletes of all ages including: club, college, school, professional, masters and unattached competitors.

Participating clubs: Cheetah's Track Club (STT), St. Thomas Track Club (STT), St. Croix Track Club (STX) and Jolly Roger Track Club (STX) and Mary's Fancy Track Club (STX)

The event had the look of an exhibition as the call for participants would produce a limited number to fill out the disciplines.

It was the first time V.I. Olympian Laverne Jones-Ferrette competed on home turf. She was in an exciting race in the 100m with Nia Jack, her heir apparent which was a photo finish. She ran 11.65 and Jack second on 11.68.

Yashira Rhymer-Stuart 2018 NCAA National High Jump Champion and second in 2019 also competed at home for the first time.

The Smiths of the St. Croix Track Club, Malique 52.01 in the 400m hurdles a personal best...also won 200m against Brian Slater; Mikaela V.I. Youth Olympian competed in the 400m hurdles and the 800m; Michelle competed in the 80m hurdles and 1000m, are vying for the international meets. As is Rodney Griffin St. Croix Track Club 400m winner; Nia Jack, Avery and Ahmed Joseph in the Javelin and Long Jump respectively. In addition, Jones-Ferrete, who organized the VITFF CAC Games Training Camp in Houston, Texas funded by the Virgin Islands Olympic Committee and VITFF, is working on putting together a qualifying 4 x 100m relay team for the Pan Am Games.

The VITFF named the 2019 event for Olympian Carl Plaskett who presented the special medals with his image to the participants. He the first V.I. Olympic track and field athlete to win an international medal. The event alternates between islands and will be in St. Croix in 2020 and will be the Rita Hendricks 2020 Track and Field Championships for Hendricks who was the first V.I. Female Olympian in track and field.

Note:

The 3000m championship will be held on the track in St. Croix on June 22 in conjunction with the Olympic Day Run

The 10,000m championship title goes to Eduardo Garcia who on Saturday who set a new national record 29:18.37 at the Portland Track Festival

The event was funded by a grant from the IAAF and the VITFF
