...the General Secretary of the IAAF says in the IAAF invitation letter of the VITFF "The World Athletics [track and field] Day (WAD) celebrates its [17]th edition this year.

"At its origin, this day was exclusively planned for youngsters members of clubs affiliated with Member Federations [of the IAAF], but since recent years the scope of the project has broadened to include the participation of school children in individual and team competitions. With the addition of these two new categories, the World Athletics Day has become a complete and important event which promotes our Sport around the world."

Awards/activities:

All participants received

- 1] special IAAF Certificate of participation
- 2] IAAF WAD wrist bands
- 3] a special IAAF World Athletics Day T-Shirt
- 4] a special VITFF raffle of four V.I. National Team Uniform T-Shirt and bag
- 5] The Virgin Islands Olympic Committee and Choice Wireless announced the raffle to win a trip for two to the London Olympics
- 6] Performances in the meet were qualifiers for upcoming Leeward Islands Championships
- 7] VITFF announced that it celebrates its 50th anniversary in 2013 and its 45th anniversary as a member of the IAAF
- 8] Celebrity athlete Iyeachia Petrus, the first female V.I. National Track and Field athlete to compete in the IAAF World Championships (1983 Helsinki, Finland) was a special guest and handed out the awards on behalf of the VITFF and the IAAF.

IAAF World Athletics Day is sanctioned by the Virgin Islands Track and Field Federation, it is sponsored by the IAAF and organized by the St. Croix Track Club and the Virgin Islands Pace Runners.
